Invitation

The Australian Chapter of the Controlled Release Society (CRS) invites you to attend the first AUS-CRS symposium, held in conjunction with the Australasian Pharmaceutical Science Association (APSA) Annual Meeting.

When: Sunday 9th December, 2007

Where: Manly Pacific Hotel, Sydney

Cost: APSA registrants – Free

Day registration (incl. lunch) - $275

The recent approval for the formation of an Australian Chapter of the CRS provides a much needed forum for Australian Controlled Release Scientists and Industry Representatives to meet and discuss CR issues.

Sunday Program

- Twelve speakers in CR field
- Tea/coffee/lunch networking
- AUS-CRS committee meeting
- Poster session as part of APSA
